Meet Siddharth Kapur

Siddharth, our Portfolio Consultant, much like The Force, brings balance to the team. He is a credit union veteran with 7 years of experience in the industry. When he's not in the office, he loves spending time outdoors and golfing with his friends.

With his strong background in payments, rewards, and digital banking, he's got what you need to find success at your financial institution. When he starts a new project, he looks at the challenges an organization is facing, then uses that information to come up with goals for the year.

Siddharth aims to continue building successful cards programs for financial institutions. There's nothing more rewarding than connecting with a new client, jumping into the data, and coming up with a plan to achieve financial goals quickly.
